*Behold, the virgin shall be with child and shall bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel, which translated means, God with us. Matthew 1:23

“Your call is important to us. Our technical support representatives are currently helping other customers, and will be available shortly. Please hold on the line and the next available representative will assist you. Your wait time will be approximately (!@#%&€*) minutes.”

How many times have we faced the inconvenience and frustration of “wait time” when immediate assistance is so necessary and urgent? It appears that the wait time script is the prevailing mantra of our contemporary society. It is as much a sign of our weakness and insufficiency as it is a pronouncement of the complication and confusion of daily life. Either way, it is the secular hymn in response to a human cry for help. As Christians, our first desire should be to fall on bended knee to wait on our pure, perfect and gracious God to lavish His love and restoration upon our lives. His promises are present and await our call! He is continually on the line to assure and provide for all our daily needs and concerns. Turn to Him...and when necessary to seek an outsourced body of knowledge, remember the convenience and ease of the power of Emmanuel continually streaming in our lives.
